Randy,

Thanks for today's call. Regarding your request for a four-day extension "related to Quantum's opposition to MTD," Valve will agree to the extension if (1) QTI agrees to file an opposition brief (instead of another amended complaint) to Valve's motion to dismiss by April 19, and (2) Symbology will not use the extension against Valve when opposing Valve's motion to expedite in that case.

Regarding the first point, as you acknowledged today, the Court's Venue Order (Dkt. 24) required a response brief by March 11 (extended to the 21st). We hope it's no longer controversial that the Court expects the parties to complete briefing on Valve's motion.

We're considering your stipulation but won't be able to respond today.

Please let us know if your clients will agree to these terms.

Sincerely,

Dario Machleidt

Hi Dario,

1. DCO, PO, Discovery Order.

Has your client had a chance to revise the DCOs for SPIS and QTI in view of our discussion? We would appreciate your team circulating that, if so, to avoid filing something opposed.

And with the PO, we will try to accommodate the restrictions as long as we have 450 pages of source code in total and 50 pages continuous.

2. 4-day extension requested on Quantum's Opposition.

Separately, we'd appreciate a four-day extension on today's deadline related to Quantum's opposition to MTD. With me being sick last week, we need additional time.

3. Times to meet and confer today.

Please feel free to call me at 415.568.0553 anytime today to facilitate getting these documents on file today. I have a state court appeal deadline today, so if I end talking with Mike Jones, I may need to ask for his advise.
